GANTZ 2nd Phase

The story so far

Good people are forced to come back to the battleground as a result as a Yaksha is slain. They find in death there slung with a powerful black ball named Gandhi, who sends them off to fight monstrous "fiends." Kurama and his others went through many Wandering battles, while losing team members on the way. After they reached 300 points, several missions were to be sent through a special maze. The red-blooded Yaksha, Katana, the strongest mobile warrior, Kidō, and Kurama's team, Ten all came back from the dead. With the team members' good will, Kurama managed to free himself from the mission as a challenge. For crossing his mission of Gandhi. However, after returning to his secondary life, Kurama were attacked by his previous promise, the evil Wampana. Outside of the mission, Kurama and Ikuma were attacked by an overwhelming number of Wampana, leaving them dead. After the loss of their two most powerful members, what did the rest do next? The team will face new challenges.

The United States is not to protect Spaniards from the Mexicans, according to the act passed by the Congress many years ago. It is still strange in the current events. But, since I can't well follow Wall Street and the news from abroad, I must be happy to stay in my country. I am not interested in Spain. In contrast to today, the Spaniards have suffered, suffered and lost, the Spaniards have suffered, according to the newspaper. Now there is just waiting for their next move.
